

Director of Youth Ministries – Job Posting
Westminster Presbyterian Church - Waterloo, IA

Reviewed and Revised: April 11, 2018

Westminster Presbyterian Church seeks a Director of Youth Ministries to serve the youth and families of Westminster by leading a solid program of nurture and discipleship for youth, and to provide guidance and inspiration for the many volunteers in this ministry.

This is a full time position primarily responsible for Junior High and Senior High students from our congregation and community. The Director plans and teaches Confirmation, plans and facilitates weekly Youth Groups for each age group and coordinates youth summer camp and mission trips. Fundraising, volunteer coordination and community middle school dances are included.

Requirements:

- Possesses a strong commitment to God through Jesus Christ
- Three references and background checks
- Ability to communicate clearly to both youth and adults
- Ability to be flexible and manage multiple priorities
- Strong organizational skills
- Ability to maintain confidentiality

Preferred Experience, Skills and Abilities:

- Bachelor's degree preferred
- Familiarity and experience with learning stages and growth in youth from 6th grade thru college
- Ability to teach lay people how to minister to youth
- Ability to seek new opportunities for youth ministry within the church and community and develop those opportunities
- Knowledge of Christian Resources
- Problem solving skills
- Practical experience in teaching Bible, Church History, and Spirituality

Starting salary range is $34,000+ and is commensurate with qualifications, experience and duties.

To learn about our church and view a full job description, please visit www.wpcw.org.

Applicants should submit a cover letter and resume to:

Westminster Presbyterian Church
Attn: Youth Director Search Committee
1301 Kimball Ave.
Waterloo, IA 50702
FAX: 319-232-9460
Email: WPCWYouthDirectorSearch@gmail.com